Organized Confusion

From our first days . . .
Remember the confusion . . .
When everyone was rushing
from class to class . . .
Think of the pride, as what we had for our Bicentennial Year.
Reflecting the images
Preserving the memories.

EIGHTH GRADE

Looking back on all our memories.
Thinking of all the ups and downs we had in Intermediate East.
Remembering the bells that sometime rang on time, the lockers that never opened, the teachers that always yelled and the cafeteria food that ???????
But now that we are looking back, none of these inconviences seem that bad after all.

When asked the following question recently, "What celebrity would you want to take your place working here and why?" the following staff members answered:

MRS. SULLIVAN/MRS. MOYSE: "It would take the Bionic Woman to take our place".

MR. GLUCK: "Raquel Welch because she is a lot better to look at than I am".

MRS. JONES: "Mary Tyler Moore. I'd like to see her talk her way out of this one."

MR. WHERRY: "Fred Burke, Commissioner of Education. I want him to see the value of guidance in-the schools."

MR. DENISE: "Roger Sauback. He represents his profession with all that is good in our society today. He leads a clean religious, healthy life and he is the symbol of what a professional athelete should be."

MRS. RUSSEN: "Lucille Ball because she would be able to identify the problems that the students have."

MR. GRIFFITHS: "Bob Hope. He has got more one line responses that I do to wise-cracks."

MR. BUSH: "Frank Kush becuase tradition and winning is radiated."

MISS BUSHEK: "Mr. Kotter. He would understand."

MRS. LUTTON: "Roberta Flack becuase she's qualified."

MRS. POWELL: "Gabe Kaplan. He'd be good for the classroom."

MISS WILK: "Fonzie because he could set them straight."

MR. GIAMMONA: "Frank Sinatra becuase he made popular a very famous song called MY WAY and that means I do things my way. Plus Frank Sinatra is italian and so am I. Also I think the kids would like his terrific personality.

MR. BOWER: "Monty Python: They're as warped as some of the students in this school. They would keep everyone busy happy, jumping and enjoying school work.

MR. WALSH: "Robert Redford because he could keep everyone's attention."

MRS. BENJAMIN: "Carol Burnett because everyone tells me I'm like her."

MR. AZZOLINI: "Dick Butkus then when I return, the kids will see how lucky they really are."

MISS DAYOCK: "Brian O'Field because no one would give him any trouble."

MISS DeFILLIPPO: "Lawrence Welk because he generates peacefulness and calm of which the world needs more."

MRS. McCUTCHEON: "Sam Levinson. Perhaps he would find a way to put some humor into Math and Science and help the students appreciate it more."

MISS DORIO: "Jacques Cousteau becuase his adventurous spirit and his desire to explore and learn would make him an excellent teacher."

MR. PECK: "Allen Funt. He could use his Candid Camera crew to take movies of the students as they are in school. The replay at an assembly would allow everyone the opportunity to see how ridiculous and silly some of the students behave."

MR. FRIEZO: "Martin Gardner. This mathematician would, I'm sure, fascinate the classes by showing and illustrating the beauty, order, precision and patterns our number system contains."

MISS FALLON: "Doug Henning so all my Yearbook problems could disappear."

EUGENE BATOR: "Do you think you will be promoted? "No Comment."
ANNA GORCYZGA: "What do you think of the school food? "It tastes like x!?/)!---Bring your own."
KIM PAPE: "How's your love life? "Danny is fine!"
ANDREA JUDE: "What's your favorite sport? "Swimming. 'Andrea the fish'".
ED HARE: How's your girdle? "18 hours and very tight."
PAT DUGAN: How's your collarbone? "My brace finally comes off in a week."
DANNY FURRULLO: How's your lovelife? "Kim's fine."
BERNIE PERAINO: What do you think of this school? "Can't stand it. North will be 100% better."
CHUCK SCHENK: Do you like Mr. Olsen? "No Comment."
KATHY CORSO: Did you like working on the Yearbook this year? "Yes, it was interesting putting together this Yearbook so everybody can remember their school."
NANCY DAVIS: What changes can be made to improve the photography staff of next year? "More teacher co-operation and more students participating on the photography staff."
ROBERT GORDON: What do you think of gym? "It's pretty physical."
JOYCE ELLIS: What do you think of the hamburgers in the cafeteria? On saturday and sunday they are good, but the other days they rot.
NICK CASSELLA: Who's your favority teacher? "Mr. Sirianni is because he is a really a great guy and he is someone I can look up to."
RICH EINWECHTER: What do you think of Mr. Wilkinson? "Who, Teddy Bear?"
LINDA ERTLE: What do you think of Miss Fallon? Red is pretty cool!"
MARK ZACHEM: What do you think of the bathrooms? I think the graffiti on the walls is intelligent."
